CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

5 February 2014

Social, Health and Empowerment Feminist Collective of Transgender Women of Africa is a registered non profit and public benefit organisation, based in East London, South Africa. S.H.E is based out of South Africa, although it is doing some regional work, mostly in East Africa.

S.H.E implements three main programmes namely; the feminist programme, health & HIV programme, and the arts and culture programme. Implemented under the thematic area of feminism, S.H.E hosted the first African Transformative Feminist Leadership Institute in August 2014 with participants from Southern and East African countries.

Following the success of the meeting, S.H.E is calling for expressions of interest for the design of a training manual to implement grassroots conscientisation of feminism among trans women. The specifications of the manual will be as follows:

- Minimum forty (40) pages;
- Bridging feminist theory and practice;
- Include creative elements with different case studies, illustrations, graphics, poetry, etc;
- Contextualised to grassroots organising;
- Contain different resources to which users of the manual can refer for additional reading on feminist literature;
- Address intersectionalities and issues of different movements e.g. sex work, race, class, economy, etc.

Desired qualifications and attributes:

- Someone with extensive experience on and sensitive to queer, trans and feminist work;
- Preferably having or currently pursuing a masters degree in social sciences or gender studies;
- Must be available immediately

Interested persons can send an expression of interest to Babalwa Kokwe on babalwa.kokwe@gmail.com and cc Leigh Ann van der Merwe on transfeminists@gmail.com

All expressions are due by 20 February 2015.
